

Hold Onto Your Butts Before They Get A Hold On The Environment

Cigarette butts are discarded each year on streets and sidewalks. When it rains, rainwater carries them into our local stormwater ponds, ditches and the Red River. Hold onto your cigarette butts and dispose of them properly.

FACT

Cigarette butts are not biodegradable. It can take over 15 years to break them down, all the while releasing the toxic chemicals contained in the filters into our waterways.

Become part of the solution not the problem

Only Rain in the Storm Drain!

City of Moorhead
Stormwater Pollution Prevention
24 Hour Stormwater Hotline 218.299.5386

